"She didn't do much, but she taiked a whole lot. There isn't any name in the book that she didn't call me. And when I arrested her, she objected with some degree of force. I had to use violence in getting her behind the steel bars. Evidently, she had seen other bars previously," expostulated Mr. Matt.

"Three months will do you good. Sergeant Smith, of the Hotel de Junk, by the serene surface of the Shockoe Creek, will be your host while you wait," put in the

The National Capitol Building in Miniature

A masterpiece of ingenuity and artistic skill. In its construction there is used 10,000 cakes of ROYAL MEDICATED SKIN DOCTOR SOAP. This wonderful piece of workmanship is now on exhibition in our show windows. It is well worth the walk to come and see it. It shows the front elevation of the Capitol with wonderful fidelity,

There will also be on FREE exhibition in the interior of our store a reproduction of the monument to Mary Washington just as it appears in Fredericksburg, Va.-the only monument to a woman ever erected by women,

The time, talent and money required to produce this splendid exhibition was expended with a single purpose-that is, to make you acquainted with the Royal Medicated Skin Doctors Soap. This well-known Soap is manufactured by the Royal Soap Company, of Cincinnati. Its ingredients are the same as used in the celebrated Woodbury Facial Soap-and as good and infinitely cheaper.
